

Load the Fact Table by considering the following requirements:

- Assure that each fact is loaded only once.
- Consider the chance of occurring updates to facts previously loaded.
- Detect the data quality problems that can happen during the loading and store them in a table specially created for that purpose.